Elephant exhibit will be named in memory of Gabe Dalmath

12/20/06

Monroe County and the Seneca Park Zoo are honoring the life and work of our friend and colleague Gabe Dalmath. Gabe passed away September 15th from cancer. Wednesday morning, County Executive Maggie Brooks announced the final piece of the zoo's new elephant exhibit will be named in memory of Gabe. The splash pool will allow visitors to get about 15 feet from Genny C and Lilac as they play in the water. Gabe was the co-chair of the campaign to raise 250 thousand dollars for the exhibit. Gabe's wife, Jean, his daughter, Amanda and his mother, Kate were on hand for the unveiling. "He was a giant in this community, not just because of his height but because of his heart. This campaign was one of the last community projects that Gabe was involved in and we are grateful for his efforts and for all he did to make this community and our zoo a better place." said Maggie Brooks. Construction for the splash pool will begin next year. It will be called the Elephant Splash Pool and Gabe Dalmath Elephant Overlook.
