Local Anchor Gabe Dalmath Dies

(Rochester, N.Y.) -- Longtime television news anchor Gabe Dalmath has passed away.

Gabe was diagnosed with untreatable kidney cancer in June. He died around 6 p.m. Friday at Strong Memorial Hospital.

Gabe was born in Hungary, escaping with his family to the United States during the revolution.

Gabe came to WHEC, channel 10, in 1976 and was on air for 29 years until he retired in December 2004 to pursue other business interests .

Much of that time he co-anchored the news with Janet Lomax, and was host of the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon every year.

He was an avid sportsman and was a ski instructor at both Swain and Bristol ski areas.

He is survived by his mother, his wife, Jean, and daughter, Amanda.

There will be no calling hours.

A memorial service will be held next week at Asbury Methodist Church.

Gabe Dalmath was 60-years-old.
